Food Technologist

Mysuru, India • ishaan.pillai@example.com

Summary

Food technologist with four years supporting development trials for shelf-stable snack products. Documents formulations, coordinates trial samples and tracks sensory feedback under the product development lead. Works with quality and production teams to keep trial observations and follow-up actions clear.

Experience

Food Technologist, Example Hazel Foods — Jan 2024 - Present

Mysuru, India

- Supported 16 pilot trials for baked snack products, maintaining ingredient weights, process observations and sample identifiers in the trial log.
- Coordinated a supervised sensory comparison with 24 internal participants and summarised feedback without making population-wide preference claims.
- Created a version-controlled formulation register, reducing conflicting trial-sheet versions from 7 to 1 in the next quarterly review.
- Prepared sample and document handovers for quality review, keeping product-release and shelf-life approval with authorised colleagues.

Product Development Assistant, Example Hazel Foods — Aug 2022 - Dec 2023

Mysuru, India

- Prepared labelled trial samples and reconciled ingredient records with the development technologist.
- Entered internal sensory observations and maintained trial-sheet versions.

Education

B.Tech in Food Technology — 2018 - 2022

Example Lakeside Institute
